

MOTHER

FEATURE FILM

Logline

Woman follows the life of her gone son using vlogs. One day her son stops uploading vlogs what becomes a cause of mother's concern.

Summary of the story

Mother is looking for her lost son. He left his home after his father's death. Mother quarreled with her husband a lot, maybe son blames his mom in father's death. Son is 23 years old. He travels around the world a lot, makes vlogs of it on YouTube but he didn't upload anything for more than a year.

Mother watches his vlogs, reads his inactive Facebook profile. She calls his friends in Skype, but when she starts talking about her son's disappearance friends stop their dialogue for some reasons. It feels like they can't talk about it or they know something what they don't want to tell her.

Mother starts her own investigation. She starts from watching his first vlogs and come all the way with him. She needs to be quick-witted to find out who does her son met during his travel and find them. Every person is a new post, new video, new step that brings her closer to the target.

Friends of her son and her friends act strangely, they ask her to stop the investigation as if they know some terrible secret about her son.

At some point it seems to mother that she almost found him. One more video and this is it.

Then the terrible secret opens to the distraught mother. The last video always was here, in the recycle bin. Video in which her son goes over the cliff in one of his climbing and dies. She always knew the truth but the grief displaced this knowledge from her mind.
